

February 3, 1976

Dear Mr. Bush:

The Overseas Writers of Washington D.C., a luncheon club of foreign affairs specialists, congratulates you on your confirmation as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and invites you to be our guest at lunch at a convenient date in the near future.

We would be honored if you could join us and talk for, perhaps ten to twenty minutes on the role of the Central Intelligence Agency and to share with us your experiences in Peking. This would be followed by a 30-40 minute question and answer period.

The Overseas Writers, as you may know, is an association of journalists founded by a group of American newsmen who attended the Versailles Peace Conference.

We would very much like to have you with us, and sincerely hope you will be able to attend.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Daniloff
Nicholas Daniloff
Acting President
The Overseas Writers
Washington, D.C.

The Hon. George Bush
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
